Camps and non-uniform excursions

All non-uniform clothing, while students are representing the College, is modest and conservative, and takes sun safety into account, with the following guidelines:

- Task-appropriate footwear – many locations require shoes that fully cover feet. Shoelaces are firmly tied.
- Clothing is modest in cut and fabric – no singlet tops, muscle tops, crop or midriff tops, and underwear is not visible.
- Shorts cover to mid-thigh, jeans (with rips) do not reveal above knees, and are not overly tight or show underwear.
- Wear tights or similar under short dresses.
- Slogans, mottos and logos on clothing are in good taste, defamatory expressions or inappropriate symbols not permitted.
- Jewellery, body art and make up follows uniform code while on excursions and camps.
- College hat or other appropriate hat is compulsory for any daytime outdoor activity.
